The sermons of Rev. W. W. Delhart play drew universally, encompassion the pastor at St. Paul's.

Parties thinking of going to California or Washington Territory can get information greatly to their advantage by calling on J. E. Elgin & Co.

The street railway company are still at work extending their lines. A forceps were yesterday placed on the extension through Eighth street.

Capt. J. D. Morrow, of Fort &

Morrow, is down for $5 for the sum total of $1000. Now, who will speak up.

An ice cream festival will be held at the Baptist church in East Waco tonight. A very pleasurable time will doubtless be had by those who attend.

Henry Handis, a negro, was arrested on Saturday night for some petty larceny and placed in the jailhouse.

He claimed he hailed from Memphis, and that he was endeavoring to get to California.

The colored folks enjoyed themselves at an ice cream entertainment at Horsfall Hall last night. The proceeds go to the lifting of the debt on the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

There was a very enjoyable social at the residence of Mr. J. W. Byrd at East Waco, last night under the auspices of the genial host and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Yesterday, Waco Female College closed upon its fall term for this session. A successful term seems to be in prospect, quite a large number of pupils having answered to roll call on Saturday.

The Worshipful Company of Cooks will take an early horseback ride on Saturday morning, if it does not rain, and return to the residence of Mr. C. P. Pierre, where they will partake of a breakfast prepared by themselves.

At the meetings of St. Paul's African Methodist Episcopal church held on Sunday and yesterday, some very successful work was done. Elder Robert is a power in the colored church and says that their obligations must be paid off.

The White Elephant is the bon ton place of the town. If you don't believe it just note the character of its clients. No temple of Bacchus in Waco can boast the same showing.

This is the result of courteous treatment and fine wares. The finest lunch counter in the city is maintained in connection.

The Iron Turbine Wind engine run with less wind and are more durable and gives better satisfaction than any mill in the market. Call and see model at J. A. Schroder's and be our own judge. Every one guaranteed.

Buy the Iron Turbine engine and the Buckeye Force pump, and you are sure to be pleased.

To-night the Waco class club will hold a special meeting at their old club rooms. The opening of the new resort will be fully discussed and every member will, it is hoped, be present.

The opening of the new theater will probably be one of the most interesting events of this fall.

The love of being dressed and carrying something sharp-witted cause of losing one black Cole, a negro, behind the jail bars yesterday morning. Dick dismounted a pair of pants and a pocket knife, and the abstraction thereof was the cause of his incarceration.

The lecture delivered by Mr. J. T.

Battle, before the workingmen's association on Sunday was listened to by a goodly number. His remarks were replete with force and were received with marked attention.

Several lectures will be delivered before the society in the future.

The residence of Major J. F. Herbert, in East Waco, was the scene of pleasant and refined social intercourse on Sunday last. On that day the genial manager reached his fifty-sixth birthday, and a number of his friends were invited to assist him in celebrating it. It is reported as having been a most enjoyable affair.

A conference was held yesterday afternoon between the county commissioners and the Waco bridge directors. Whether or not they came to any definite understanding was not known. It was asserted on the street last night that no agreement had been arrived at, and that the matter still remained in the old status.

The many friends of County Asso-ciator S. L. Norwood will learn with regret that his hand has been completely paralyzed from the wrist down.

The sympathy of the entire community will be with Assessor Norwood in his misfortune.

Two conferences were held with the city commission by Waco's business men yesterday, one at the Pacific

Hotel and one at the New McClelland.
